Joint Interest Owner

Re: Transfer of Operatorship from Will Energy Corporation (“Will Energy”) to Contango Resources, Inc. (“Contango”) and new contact information for Joint Interest Billing (“JIB”)

Dear Partner:

In October 2019, Will Energy sold its assets to Contango. These assets were transferred to Contango effective July 1, 2019.

Effective immediately, Contango will be responsible for all JIB matters pertaining to your account with respect to these assets. All such account matters should be directed to Contango rather than to Will Energy.

Effective immediately, all joint interest payments with respect to these assets should be remitted directly to Contango at the following address:

Contango Resources, Inc.
Attn: Joint Interest Billing
P.O. Box 735060
Dallas, TX 75373-5060

All questions pertaining to your account should be directed to the following:

JIBandRevInquiry@contango.com

Please be aware that pumper charges and overhead dating back to January 2020 was not billed on prior billings. This JIB package contains the charges for those items.

As an established operator with a decades-old track record, Contango looks forward to developing new relationships with partners. More information regarding Contango can be found at our corporate website at www.contango.com.

Should you have any additional questions regarding the transition, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Best Regards,

Contango Resources, Inc.
